MAYOR OWENS SELECTED TO SERVE ON GEORGIA MUNICIPAL ASSOCIATION’S MEMBER SERVICES ADVISORY COUNCIL

November 24, 2020 - The City of Camilla is pleased to announce the selection of Mayor Kelvin Owens to the Georgia Municipal Association’s (GMA) Member Services Advisory Council. The Council consists of elected officials and staff from cities of all sizes throughout the state. They are responsible for providing ongoing guidance to GMA staff on the service needs of member cities by recommending new or expanded services that can help cities operate more efficiently.

Mayor Owens commented, "I'm excited and honored to have the opportunity to share my perspective with the Advisory Council. Evaluating member services is an ongoing endeavor and I am eager to contribute to this era of innovation, technology, and growth."

The Georgia Municipal Association is the only state organization representing municipal governments in Georgia. Based in Atlanta, GMA is a voluntary, non-profit organization that provides legislative advocacy, educational, employee benefit and technical consulting services to its members. Their mission is to anticipate and influence the forces shaping Georgia’s cities and to provide leadership, tools, and services that assist municipal governments in becoming more innovative, effective, and responsive. The City of Camilla is a long-time member of GMA which currently represents 537 cities in Georgia.
